THE LORD'S DAY
March 8, 2026

Welcome

Prelude

(time of silent preparation)

Call to Worship*

Oh come, let us sing to the LORD; let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation! Let us come into his presence with thanksgiving; let us make a joyful noise to him with songs of praise! For the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his hand are the depths of the earth; the heights of the mountains are his also. The sea is his, for he made it, and his hands formed the dry land. Oh come, let us worship and bow down; let us kneel before the LORD, our Maker! For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand.

Psalm 95:1-7

Invocation*

Song of Adoration*

All People that on Earth Do Dwell

(See hymn at the back of the bulletin)

God's Call to Holiness

Elder: The Lord Jesus Christ called us to be holy by saying:

Congregation: Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eyes are good, your whole body will be full of light. But if your eyes are bad, your whole body will be full of darkness. If then the light within you is darkness, how great is that darkness! "No one can serve two masters. Either he will hate the one and love the other, or he will be devoted to the one and despise the other.

Matthew 6:21-24

Confession of Sin

Congregation: Father, when I look at the time and effort I spend focusing on myself, and on what I want, it is painfully clear where so much of my treasure lies. So often I simply seek my own fulfillment, I consider only myself, and Your glory is rarely what consumes my heart. There is still so much darkness in me. I confess Lord, that when I put myself first, I make myself master and despise You. Forgive me Father, and thank you that You have invited me to bring these sins before You.

Declaration of Forgiveness*

Elder: Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old has passed away; behold, the new has come. All this is from God, who through Christ reconciled us to himself and gave us the ministry of reconciliation; that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting to us the message of reconciliation.

2 Corinthians 5:17-19

Songs of Gratitude*

O Sacred Head, Now Wounded

(See hymn at the back of the bulletin)

His Mercy is More

What love could remember no wrongs we have done
Omniscient all knowing He counts not their sum
Thrown into a sea without bottom or shore
Our sins they are many His mercy is more

What patience would wait as we constantly roam
What Father so tender is calling us home
He welcomes the weakest the vilest the poor
Our sins they are many His mercy is more

Chorus

Praise the Lord His mercy is more
Stronger than darkness new every morn
Our sins they are many His mercy is more

What riches of kindness He lavished on us
His blood was the payment His life was the cost
We stood 'neath a debt we could never afford
Our sins they are many His mercy is more

Chorus2x

Our sins they are many His mercy is more

Confession of Faith*

Belgic Confession: Article 14, Canons of Dort: 1-2

We believe that God created man out of the dust of the earth, and made and formed him after his own image and likeness, good, righteous, and holy, capable in all things to will, agreeably to the will of God. But [mankind] willfully subjected himself to sin, and consequently to death, and the curse, giving ear to the words of the devil. For the commandment of life, which he had received, he transgressed; and by sin separated himself from God, who was his true life, having corrupted his whole nature; whereby he made himself liable to bodily and spiritual death.

As all men have sinned in Adam, lie under the curse, and are deserving of eternal death, God would have done no injustice by leaving them all to perish and delivering them over to condemnation on account of sin, according to the words of the apostle: "for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God" ... But in this the love of God was manifested, that He "sent His only begotten Son into the world, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, Who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come,
Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Offering

Doxology*

Praise Him above ye heav'nly hosts
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost
Amen
